

12th September 2024

PRESS RELEASE: THE ROKBOX LOOP NETWORK EXPANDS & WELCOMES NEW SHIPPERS

ROKBOX LOOP, the innovative art shipping collaboration, expands into Geneva with Harsch, Cologne with Haas & Co and London with Regency to further sustainable fine art shipping practices.

ROKBOX is very pleased to welcome fine art shippers Harsch and Regency to the vanguard of ROKBOX LOOP collaborators: Dietl, Gander & White, Helutrans and Haas & Co.

This network of forward-thinking fine art shippers is revolutionising the art world by bringing reusable fine art shipping crates to reduce packaging waste and carbon emissions by 90%.

Reusable fine art LOOP crates can be hired from 15 hubs on 3 continents: France, Germany, Switzerland, East & West Coast USA, Hong Kong, Singapore, and Dubai is coming soon!

Commenting on joining LOOP, Robin Harsch said: "We are proud to be part of this significant shift towards more sustainable practices in our industry. Joining ROKBOX LOOP marks a new chapter for Harsch, where innovation and environmental responsibility go hand in hand. We are eager to see the positive changes this collaboration will bring and hope to inspire other companies to join us in making a lasting impact on the environment and the future of art logistics."

Leon Lambert, Director of Operations at Regency said: "Regency prides itself on being a family-focused business. Sustainability is about what we can put in place for future generations. By collaborating as part of ROKBOX LOOP we can work in unison to benefit not just ourselves but society as a whole. In doing so, we provide our clients with the best service levels possible. We are proud to be part of the future of sustainable shipping."

Andrew Stramentov, ROKBOX founder & CEO said: "We're delighted to welcome Harsch and Regency as the newest members of the ROKBOX LOOP collaboration, making rentable, reusable art packaging accessible to more galleries, auction houses and art world institutions. Brave collaboration like this gives us all hope for the future."

ROKBOX LOOP's rentable, reusable fine art shipping crates protect artworks, budgets and the environment better than wooden equivalents. ROKBOX LOOP is backed by AXA XL, the Gallery Climate Coalition and Sustainable Tools in Cultural Heritage.

Notes to editors:

About ROKBOX LOOP

ROKBOX LOOP is a first of its kind collaboration between fine art shippers Gander & White, Haas & Co, Dietl, Helutrans, Regency and Harsch. It launched in January 2024 in 10 countries to redefine fine art shipping by eradicating packaging waste and lowering carbon emissions and costs. LOOP's global network of rentable, reusable, cost effective art crates eliminate unnecessary costs, risk, waste and pollution by up to 90%; safeguarding art, budgets and the planet.

About ROKBOX

ROKBOX was born in 2015 by art world professionals who had had enough of dealing with artworks being damaged in transit plus single-use crating & packaging waste. ROKBOXs are designed in collaboration with shippers, climate scientists, conservators & engineers to lower costs, keep art safer in transit & storage, remove waste, and cut shipping pollution.

- ROKBOXs are the lightest cases on the market, yet maintain superior protection.
- ROKBOXs are made using tough, durable, repairable and recyclable materials.
- ROKBOX crates can be used hundreds of times and owned outright or rented via the global ROKBOX LOOP network.
- ROKBOX is used and trusted by museums, auction houses, galleries, governments, artists and collectors.
- Read our independent performance testing data, our environmental Life Cycle Analysis.

www.rok-box.com | <https://rok-boxloop.com> | info@rok-boxloop.com

Press: claudia@rok-box.com